

Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago- Detroit Branch

Night at the Fed—the Current Economic Climate

Teacher Workshop for High School and Middle School

Sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago-Detroit Branch and Michigan Council on Economic Education

Wednesday, February 8th, 2012

4:30-8:30pm

.3 SB-CEUs offered through MCEE ($5 registration fee paid to MCEE the night of the workshop)

Location: Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago-Detroit Branch, 1600 E. Warren Ave., Detroit, MI 48207

The Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago-Detroit Branch would like to offer middle and high school educators an opportunity to explore current economic and financial topics, tour the Detroit Branch, learn more about Federal Reserve operations, network with colleagues, and earn professional development credits.

Topics to be covered during the presentation include:

1. Current global and national economic issues
2. Review of the current economic climate and outlook
3. Updates on regional and local economic conditions
4. The Federal Reserve's role in promoting economic stability

The event includes a buffet dinner, tours, and presentation. Registration is open and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Educators would be allowed to bring one guest?

For more information and registration, please contact Martin Lavelle at martin.lavelle@chi.frb.org or 313-964-6150